

Art Industry News

artnet News | March 28, 2019

Peninsula Hotels Launch Art Experience During Art Basel Hong Kong –

The multi-sensory art experience curated by Isolde Briellaier and Bettina Prentice is called “Art in Resonance” and includes an ethereal shifting sculpture by Janet Echelman floating above the hotel’s façade, and a modern take on the Chinese teahouse designed by MINAX Architects founder Zhi-gang Lu called the Wonder Room. After its Hong Kong run, the experience will travel to other Peninsula Hotels in Paris in the fall, followed by London, Istanbul, and Yangon.

Timothy Paul Myers, Alizarin, at The Peninsula Hong Kong. Photo by Simon J. Nicol for the Peninsula Hotels.

Gong master located within MINAX’s The Wonder Room. Photo by Simon J. Nicol for the Peninsula Hotels.

Left: Close-up of Janet Echelman’s Earthtime 1.26 at the Peninsula Hong Kong. Photo by Simon J. Nicol for the Peninsula Hotels.

Right: Ivan Navarro’s Home located outside the Verandah at the Peninsula Hong Kong. Photo by Simon J. Nicol for the Peninsula Hotels.